

Fasson® Portfolio for Jetrion UV Digital Inkjet Systems

Presenting More Ways To Go Digital

Want to capitalize on digital print opportunities? Avery Dennison can help right now. We're continuously expanding our digital portfolio with new products for Jetrion digital presses.

More Choices.

Avery Dennison gives you more choices than ever, with more core products, white and foil papers, rigid and conformable films, and a wide variety of products for durable goods that are UL recognized.

Our digital products are Jetrion certified for printing on Jetrion 4000 and 4830 UV Digital Inkjet systems. Plus the majority of the products are available via our industry leading Fasson EXACT™ service program, which means you order rolls in the exact width you need.

Ready to Grow. Ready to Roll.

Our expanded portfolio not only gives you easy access to more Fasson digital products, it allows you to grow quickly and easily.

Rely on the high quality, low MOQ, consistent service and technical support that comes from Avery Dennison, a name you know and trust.

The Jetrion 4000 was designed to economically run lengths of 50,000 labels and beyond. The Jetrion 4830 is a wider version with throughput increased by more than two times. The Jetrion 4830 can be added as a complementary piece of equipment to increase current printing efficiency or it can replace multiple, lower productivity printers. Either way, Avery Dennison has the label material you need.

Ultimate Flexibility.

Consumer packaged goods (CPG) companies are using the power of packaging to drive sales and aggressively leverage their brand and packaging design. Product variety, samples, new product short runs, private labeling, product personalization for regional distribution... are all business opportunities that demand the functionality and versatility of their needs. By working with us, innovative narrow web converters can offer manufacturers the late stage differentiation, enhanced brand image and increased shelf appeal they're looking for in a flat-out hurry.
