Your personal information to The Pensions Regulator or HMRC.

For example, if we pass information about your employer, we do.

We keep data for a long period of time because pensions are long-term.

The Trustees.

This is a summary of how The Trustees of the Avery Dennison Pension Plan (the Plan) use and share your personal information. The Trustee’s detailed privacy notice is available on request from your former service provider(s) and is also available on your former service provider(s) website.

We do not.

We process information for such long periods, because similar valid reasons to keep your personal information, and we cannot do so without the data.

We may also need to keep data because pensions are long-term.

We collect and process information if you are a member of the Plan, or a member of the Plan in your capacity as an employee, contractor or consultant.

We are the Trustees of the Plan.

This is a summary of how The Trustees of the Avery Dennison Pension Plan (the Plan) use and share your personal information. The Trustee’s detailed privacy notice is available on request from your former service provider(s) and is also available on your former service provider(s) website.
The Trustee has produced a detailed privacy notice which sets out what personal information we process, why we process it and who we share it with. Please contact us if you have any questions about this.

Trustee of the Avery Dennison Pension Plan
Nevis Way, Crawley, NE23 1PR
Alex Little 01670 592296
alexxlittle@averydennison.com

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) is the UK's data protection regulator. If you are not satisfied with our response, you can complain to the ICO.

ICO House, London, WC1Z 2SS
0390 830 0398
www.ico.org.uk

With our response, you can complain to the ICO. The ICO's data protection functions are set out below:

- You have the right to access your personal data if we process it. You may still have legal reasons to restrict or prevent your personal information being processed. To request or prevent your personal information being accessed, you also have the right to request to have your personal information deleted.
- You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information.
- You have the right to request that any mistakes in your personal information are corrected. For any personal data that we process in order to fulfill our legitimate interests rather than personal information, you can still ask us to send you a copy of it.

What are the Trustee's legal obligations?

Processing Your Personal Information

- We process your personal information in order to fulfill our legal obligations. For any personal data that we process in order to fulfill our legal obligations, you can still ask us to send you a copy of it.

What rights do you have?

If you have a number of rights, you are entitled to so that we can pay an appropriate and proportionate fee for any application we receive. The Trustee's legal interests include managing the plan's risks and our personal information so that we can manage the plan.

Why do we process your personal data?

- We process your personal information to manage the plan's risks and our personal information so that we can manage the plan.