

Avery Dennison Retail Branding and Information Solutions (RBIS) Bangladesh Fact Sheet

One of the largest multi-national employers in the region, Avery Dennison Retail Branding and Information Solutions \(RBIS\) continues to invest in initiatives that promote workplace safety and quality of life in Bangladesh. Employee safety, social compliance, corporate responsibility and sustainability are core values of our culture and our factory safety standards are often more stringent than the local or national standards. We promote sustainable, socially compliant business conduct and fair labor practices.

To further improve the lives of the people of Bangladesh, The Avery Dennison Foundation advances the causes of education and sustainability in the communities where Avery Dennison employees live and work, and encourages employee engagement with a spirit of invention and innovation. In Bangladesh, the Foundation offers a life skills program to Bangladeshi in the Dhaka community to support access to educational programs that address access to clean water, farming practices, small business and food programs, helping them to thrive through education and self-reliance.

In response to the Savar Rana Plaza tragedy, RBIS employees in the Dhaka community mobilized quickly, actively participating in rescue operations at the Building Collapse site while providing a factory ambulance to aid in rescue efforts. Following the recovery effort, RBIS employees became involved in the relief effort, contributing one day of salary to victims through the Red Cross, planting trees, and providing computers and blankets to local schools.
